

19 September UN Summit for Refugees and Migrants

Statement on behalf of the Global Migration Group

Phumzile Mlambo-Ngcuka, UN Under-Secretary-General and Executive Director, UN Women

Excellencies, Ladies and gentlemen,

It is an honour to address this plenary as the 2016 Chair of the Global Migration Group.

2016 marks the Global Migration Group's tenth anniversary.

The group has grown – both in size, and relevance, two additional members joined this month.

I am equally pleased that the International Organization for Migration

– one of the founding members of the Group has just joined the UN system as a related organization.

The Global Migration Group stands ready to support Member States within the framework of the 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development

And second in the processes leading to the adoption of a global compact on regular and orderly migration, and the adoption of a global compact on refugees

The Group was honoured to help with preparation for this Summit, and

to contribute to the concept notes for the six roundtables being held today.

Furthermore, Group Members are working to contribute to the concept notes for the six roundtables being held today.

1. A Guidance Note on integrating migration and displacement

In United Nations Development Assistance
Frameworks:

2. Principles and Guidelines,

Supported by practical guidance, on the human rights protection of migrants in vulnerable situations within large

3. A Handbook for improving the production and use of migration data for development:

The International Labour

Organization's

Principles and Operational Guidelines on fair recruitment,

5. the International Organization on Migration's International Recruitment Integrity System.

And will be on the Group's website and finalized.

Lives of men, women and children depend on actions we engage in.

Our Members

individually and collectively,

people-centred,

human-rights-based, and gender-responsive

Thank you.
