

United Nations General Assembly | Sixth Committee
Criminal accountability of United Nations officials and experts on mission

5 October 2018

(check against delivery)

Mr. Chairman,

At the outset, Brazil aligns itself with the statement delivered by El Salvador on behalf of CELAC and takes this opportunity to address some issues from a national perspective.

Brazil thanks the Secretary General for the three reports submitted this year about the criminal accountability of United Nations officials and experts on mission. They provide a useful compilation of state

