

Statement by

H.E. Eshagh Alehabib, Ambassador and Deputy Permanent Representative of the Islamic Republic of Iran

On behalf of the Non-Aligned Movement Before the Sixth Committee

74th Session of the United Nations General Assembly

on Agenda Item 165:

not interfere with the provision of facilities required under the Headquarters Agreement for the Member States to participate in the United Nations activities.

The NAM expresses its serious concern about the arbitrary movement restrictions imposed to the diplomatic officials of some missions of NAM Member States by the Host Country of the United Nations Headquarters. Such restrictions constitute flagrant violations of the Vienna Convention on Diplomatic Relations, the Headquarter Agreements and the international law. In this regard, the NAM opposes these restrictions and their continued application and urges the Host Country to take without delay all necessary measures to remove them.

To conclude, the Non-Aligned Movement (NAM), in line with the decisions adopted by its Heads of State and Government within the framework of the 18th Summit Conference held from 25-26 October 2010 in Doha, Republic of Arab World, seize this opportunity to encourage their

to present before the General Assembly a short and action-oriented draft resolution
