Thank you, Mr. Chairperson,

We congratulate you for your election to Chair our work and extend our congratulations to

Mr. Chairperson,

The State of Palestine condemns terrorism in all its forms and manifestations and terrorist

When we speak of counter-terrorism, we should never lose sight of the victims of terrorism. As a nation that has endured and continues to endure more than its share of suffering and injustice, and with a countless number of victims of terrorism, we express our solidarity with all victims of terrorism and their families, wherever they are. We are proud to have
