Madam / Mr Chair,

I will address Chapters VII and VIII of the ILC Reportamely the topics "Succession of States in respect of State responsibility and "General principles of law".

Let me turn firstto the topic of Succession of States in respect of Statesponsibility. At the outset, would like to thank Special Rapporteur Professor Pavel Šturma for his fifth report and his work on this topic over the yearswould also like to toommend the Commission for the provisional adoption of ew draft guidelines [6, 7bis, 10, 10bis, 11, 12, 13, 13bis, 14, 15 and 15bis together with commentaries thereto.

Before addressing the guidelines, anticipated by theseuidelines. Instead, they merely refer to an agreement between the injured and wrongdoing State Furthermore, whilesome of the draft guidelines refer to relevant circumstances that should be taken into consideration when assessing the situation, only a handful of these provide at least a general guidance on what kinds of circumstances should be considered releva Otificelines 11 and 14

Concluding our remarks on the topic, we gerly-ragree with theapproach adopted by the Commission However, we believe that the work of the ILC should keep in mind the practical aspects of the work and ultimate objective of this exercise—to provide sufficiently specific guidance of States. We believe that the outcome of the work the topic would complement ILC's previous work on related topics.

Madame / Mr. Chair,

Moving to the topic of General principles of law, I would like to commend the diligence and efforts of the Special Rapporteut Mr. Marcelo Vázquez Bermúdez, whose third report Commission considered is recent session Slovakia takes note of the provisionally adopted draft conclusion 3, 5 and 7 by the Commiss Before international community. We note that commenta sites to clarify that the "intrinsic" element should reflect the compatibility element of general principles of law derived from
