

THE SOCIALIST REPUBLIC OF VIET NAM
PERMANENT MISSION TO THE UNITED NATIONS

STATEMENT

by H.E. Ambassador Dang Hoang Giang
Permanent Representative of Viet Nam to the United Nations at the Sixth Committee of the 77th Session of the General Assembly

Congress of Victims of Terrorism in September 2022 on Advancing the rights and needs of victims of terrorism. With this in mind, we would like to share the following points:

First, international terrorism remains a global challenge that requires global action. We must take a comprehensive approach to combat terrorism at national, regional and global levels under the central coordinating role of the United Nations. Efforts towards this end must be in accordance with international law and the UN Charter and implemented with increasing synergies within the UN system and adequate participation of all stakeholders, including regional organizations and local communities.

Second, the COVID-19 pandemic has laid bare social inequities and structural challenges. Those vulnerabilities might be exploited by terrorist groups, including to expand their influence and to drive their recruitment efforts. In this context, Member States must continue to effectively address such structural challenges, inc(c)11()11()-137

Fourth, emerging technologies are bringing not only new opportunities for communities but also loopholes for terrorist groups. In this context, understanding and regulating the use of new centre for counterterrorism training established in February 2022. We have also been striving to improve social equity and development, with remarkable achievements in recent years, so terrorism can not take root.

In conclusion, Viet Nam will spare no effort to contribute to peace, cooperation and development in the world. We will continue to join the international community in the fight against terrorism.

I thank you, Mr. Chair./.
