United Nations Dispute Tribunal

b. if he concurs with the remand th is case for institution and correction of the procedure under ST/SGB/2008/5.

4. The Respondent replied to these orders on 5 September. He declined to concur with the remand of the case under the provision st. of 0.4 of the Statute of the Dispute Tribunabn the grounds that he judgment made a number of determinations on the merits of the Applicant's claims.

5. The Respondent also provided the Tribunal with an update on the progress of the investigation into the Applicastcomplaints of prohibited activity

6. In summary the Respondent advised that a draft report of the fifacting panel records the interviews of 31 interviews and will be updated as testimony is received and reviewed. The panel has continued to conduct interviews throughout July and will interview five additional witnesses over the next three weeks. It will issue a draft report to the irector-General UNON for her to take the action prescribed in section 5.18 of ST/SGB/2008/Johen it has completed its investigations

Remedies

7. In view of the response from (f)13(r)-8(o)-32(m)10()-69((f)13(r)-8(o)-32(m)10()-69(.88 625.68

d. To award him damages for the delay.

Respondent's submissions

9. The Repondent submits that the panel is activitigently to finalize its investigations and that, upon conclusion of the investigatione, panel will prepare a detailed report giving a full account of the facts it has ascertained in the process and attaching cumentary evidence relevant to the prohibited conduct.

Considerations

10. In Asariotis 2013-UNAT-309, UNAT held that not every breach will give rise to an award of moral damageess a result of a breach of the procedural due process entitlements antidat

JUDGMENT

14. No compensations awarded.

(Signed)