INDEPENDENT AUDIT ADVISORY COMMITTEE ENDS SESSION

The Independent Audit Advisory Committee of the United Nations (IAAC) held its Thirteenth session from 15 to 17 February 2011. The session, which was held at United Nations Headquarters in New York, was presided over by the Chairman, David M. Walker, with all the members of the IAAC in attendance, namely John F.S. Muwanga (Vice-Chairman), Vadim V. Dubinkin, Vinod Rai and Adrian P. Strachan.

The IAAC members welcomed Mr. Rai (India), the recently appointed member of the Committee.

The IAAC's agenda for the Thirteenth session included meetings with:

- The Under-Secretary-General and senior managers and staff of the Office of Internal Oversight Services (OIOS) regarding a wide range of OIOS related matters, including an overview of their 2010 budget utilization and the main elements of their 2012/2013 budget proposal. The IAAC continued its discussions with OIOS on the risk-based work planning process and various issues relating to the Investigations Division. In addition, the Committee discussed standard agenda items with OIOS such as high risks identified

The members also met with the Secretary of the Fifth Committee (Administrative and Budgetary) of the General Assembly and discussed issues related to the consideration of the recommendations of the IAAC in the Fifth Committee.

The next (Fourteenth) session of the IAAC is scheduled for 12-14 April at United Nations Headquarters in New York.
