partners during the paralenic. The enhanced value of South-South cooperation revealed as a result of the paralenic is described in the report of the twentieth session of the Highlesel Committee ($A^{7/6}(3)$), which highlights some new priorities for South-South cooperation necessitated by the paralenic, including the