Statement
by
Mr Sharke Chaman Khan
First Secretary
Permanent Mission of Bangladesh to the UN

on April 27, 2010

Mr. Chairman,

At the outset, let me begin by congratulating Mr. Shalva Tsiskarashvili of the Permanent Mission of Georgia on his election as Vice-Chairman of the Committee. Allow me to express my sincere appreciation for his contribution to the committee.

Mr. Chairman,

My delegation thanks Mr. Kiyotaka Akasaka, the Under Secretary General for Communications and Public Information, for his comprehensive presentation on the activities of the Department of Public Information (DPI). My delegation attaches great importance to the activities and performance of the DPI for its being the strategic communicator of Organization's activities and concerns to achieve the greatest public impact.

My delegation also wishes to express its appreciation to the DPI for its contribution to the work of the United Nations in the field of public information.

Mr. Chairman,

Bangladesh is happy to note the close cooperation between DPI and DPKO & DES in projecting the work of UN peacekeepers. As a major troop contributing country, Bangladesh attaches great importance to publicizing the UN's this splendid endeavour in peacekeeping and peacebuilding work. We believe that DPI has much more to work in this area.

Mr. Chairman,

we hope these observances will help showcase the use of all languages -- not just the
