Chapter II. International peace and security
As a stakeholder in global peace and security, Generocity focuses on providing emergency aid and long-term developmental aid that fosters improved international relationshipns (f()2ak42Di pr)00 (pr2n glflns) connection. By contributing to the development and stability of these regions, Generocity seeks to create a ripple effect of positive change, indirectly contributing to global peace efforts.

This includes support for international organizations that focus on building necessary infrastructure, and providing other essential services in different regions. Generocity believes that such aid not only addresses immediate needs but also contributes to long-term peace and stability. By fostering environments where people have access to basic needs, education, and economic opportunities, the likelihood of conflict can be reduced. This approach aligns with Hong Kong's position as a global city and its capacity to influence positive change in the international community.

As a stakeholder in global peace and security, Generocity advocates for Hong Kong to take an active role in providing developmental assistance to encourage the formation of stronger bonds to foster improved international relationships. .
