prevent and combat corruption, bribery and money laundering in all their forms enshrined in the existing international architecture, in particular in those prescribed in the United Nations Convention Against Corruption and the United Nations Convention Against Transnational Organized Crime. We commit to completing the 2nd review cycle of the UNCAC in 95 percent of countries by the end of 2025, including transparent dissemination of country reviews, as well as providing public statements of measures taken following reviews. This includes establishing beneficial ownership registries and requirements for financial institutions to check beneficial ownership.
